Pioneer Days Set For May 9-12

Pioneer Days of 1951 are tentatively scheduled this year for May 9, 10, 11, and 12, Sterling Ripple, president of the sponsoring Lions Club, announced this week.

The traditional Sierra Madre festival is planned almost a month ahead of last year's celebration which was held the first week in June.

CHECK SUSPECT UNDER ARREST

"Dr. Herbert Smith," phoney check suspect who victimized at least one Sierra Madre store, was arrested in Los Vegas Saturday.

The "doctor," who passed a rubbery check for $131 at Don Jackson's Boys and Mens Store, was brought to Pasadena yesterday on extradition papers.

BROTHERS WIN TOP MUSICIAN RATINGS

Malcolm and Deane Pennock, students at Marshall Jr. High, won ratings again this year in the recent district musical festival held in Alhambra. They are now eligible for the inter-district contest to be held at Fullerton next Saturday.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pennock. Malcolm plays the trombone and Deane, trumpet, in the high school band.

SUBDIVISION MAKES MARCH 'LIVELY' BUILDING MONTH

Most of Sierra Madre's building activity came in one big lump last month as C. and M. Homes Manchester drew permits to build 17 homes on South Mountain Trail.

City Building Inspector William Lees reported a "very lively" building month, with permits totalling $256,410 issued from his office. The figure for March of 1950 was $136,200—slightly more than half the same month this year.

The R-L subdivision of seven-room homes is on Mountain Trail, from Lowell to Orange Grove. Building permits for $10,000 were taken out for each of the 17 homes.

Mr. Lees issued other permits for more than $500 to: B. Burmeister, to build a house and garage at 334 Camillo street, a permit for $10,000; Paul Carter, to construct a dwelling at 715 N. Lima, permit for $5000; Mrs. Walter A. Fader, to add a bedroom and bath at 166 S. Baldwin, $2500; Michael Kay, to build a house and pool.

Director of Public Works, G. B. Watson, also was ordered to prepare the pool for the summer season. Work, to cost $150, will include "general house-cleaning" of the bathhouse, repainting of the outside toilets and pool.

Black Agrees to Wait on Proposal

Councilman Alexander Black this week agreed to postpone action in killing the city's recreation ordinance until after a joint meeting is held with the Council, Recreation Commission, and School Board.

Mr. Black said he was agreeable to hold up first reading of the proposed repeal ordinance until such a meeting is held.

"My opinion remains the same," he stated, "but I'm willing to go along."

He moved that a meeting be arranged with the City Council and Recreation Commission to discuss the recreation program.

Councilman Herman Barter amended Mr. Black's motion to include the School Board since funds for recreation also come from the City School District.

The Council heard a letter from the Recreation Commission Tuesday in which it was recommended that the city leave the recreation ordinance "unchanged at the present time," but study the possibility of amending it to combine both parks and recreation in the future.

Mr. Black, as one of the Council's representatives on the Recreation Commission, had voted "yes" on the recommendation at last Wednesday's meeting of the commission.

Two weeks ago, however, it was his motion that ordered City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn to draw up a proposed ordinance to repeal the recreation law.

A letter from the Coordinating Council also was read Tuesday, urging a delay in doing away with the ordinance. Results of the Coordinating Council's survey on recreation were presented.

In the Recreation Commission's letter, employment of a year round part-time recreation director was recommended. Suggested salary was $300 a month for the three summer months and a $25 per month retainer fee for the other nine months.

Black Issues Statement:

At Tuesday night's meeting of the City Council, Councilman Alexander Black issued the following statement:

For the record, I would like to offer my personal comments on the reportorial coverage of city affairs by the Sierra Madre News.

There can be no question but that the press reserves the right to take sides on any issue. I have no argument with that.

My complaint lies in the fact that the Sierra Madre News has consistently mixed editorial comment with news coverage. In addition, it is my belief that the paper has consistently refused to report both sides of many issues in news stories.

Generally, it has not been a question of misquotation but one of apparently intentionally quoting only parts of statements, lifted from the complete context.

If subscribers of the Sierra Madre News are to get the full facts on controversial issues, I sincerely plead that the only paper published in Sierra Madre accurately report both sides of the issue in the story and present editorial opinion elsewhere in the paper.

AN EDITORIAL . . .

The NEWS was given a back-handed compliment Tuesday night. In criticizing the "reportorial coverage" of city affairs, actually the Council was giving the highest possible praise to this newspaper for doing its job in maintaining a close watch on civic affairs.

As for "editorial comment" we prefer to call it "interpretive reporting." It not only is the right, but the duty of a newspaper to intelligently interpret news. In reporting city affairs, the NEWS tries to go beyond routine motions and roll-call votes, etc., to tell our readers what actually is happening.

The Council, undoubtedly, would like to see the NEWS publish only the minutes of their meetings. If we were to do that, we would not be reporting and giving emphasis to what is significant in a civic sense.

The Council has no right to demand what is called a "favorable press." If the Councilmen do something worthy of praise, they should get it. However, if their actions are open to criticism, it is their responsibility, not ours.

Much public pressure has been brought to bear on several Councilmen on recent civic issues, such as recreation. They accepted this responsibility when they sought public office.

As for the NEWS, we shall continue to give our readers what they have a right to know—happenings in Sierra Madre presented in the light of their relative importance.

New Appeal Made For Lagging ARC Campaign

"This is no time to spoil our perfect record." R. C. Lewis, chapter chairman of the Sierra Madre Red Cross, made this statement Tuesday as drive workers still were $423.79 short of the 1951 fund campaign quota.

"We have many years of unbroken success behind us," Mr.

Lewis said. "This crucial period in our nation's history is no time for Sierra Madrans to shirk their share of the burden."

Quota of the fund campaign here is $6416. The drive has been in progress since the first of March.

Mr. Lewis urged citizens who have not been reached or those who can increase the size of their original donation to mail checks today to the Red Cross Chapter House, 41 S. Baldwin.

OFFICERS INSTALLED AT HUNTINGTON

The Sierra Madre Guild to the Children's Hospital installed officers in the Garden Room of the Huntington Hotel, Wednesday at a luncheon meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Steinberger installed the following 1951 officers: Mrs. Robert Summers, president; Mrs. Donald Metzger, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. Harold Clardy, Secy.; Mrs. Lewis Riglesberger, Treas. Other Sierra Madre members attending included Mmes. James Gentry, William Rhoades, Clyde Hoover, George Mackinac and Frank Penn.

Speech Winner Competes Friday

Betty Boyd, the 17-year-old winner of the Sierra Madre Lions Club speaking contest, will compete in zone contest elimination rounds tomorrow night, April 13, 7 o'clock at Eaton's Restaurant.

Several local Lions will attend the contest to hear Miss Boyd compete. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Brotherton of Pasadena and is a student at John Muir College.

Donald Rood To Be Pastor At Bethany

The Rev. Donald Rood of Glendale has accepted pastorate of Bethany Church, it was announced this week.

According to word received by Dewey Mulholland, interim pastor at Bethany, Mr. and Mrs. Rood with their 16-month-old son, Rickie, will begin their ministry in Sierra Madre May 6.

REV. DONALD ROOD . . . accepts pulpit

The Bethany Church pulpit was vacated Jan. 1 when the Rev. Clarence Nida became pastor of Immanuel Church in Burbank.

The Rev. Rood, after being graduated from Glendale College and the Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, served as a minister in Compton. Since then he has been engaged in evangelical work in the East and in the Pacific Northwest.

"Members and friends of Bethany Church have eagerly awaited the opportunity to bring this young man to Sierra Madre," Mr. Mulholland stated in making the announcement.

Rev. Nida Recalled as AF Chaplain

The Rev. Clarence R. Nida, former pastor at Bethany Church, has been recalled to active duty in the U. S. Air Force.

Mr. Nida, who served as a chaplain in World War II, holds

REV. CLARENCE NIDA . . . air force chaplain

the rank of major. He will report for duty April 17.

The Nida family will be in New York for a month before he is transferred to Texas for further assignment.

Mr. Nida left Bethany Church in January to accept the pastorate at Immanuel Church in Burbank. He had been minister here for nearly four years and was active in the local Kiwanis Club.

REMOVAL OF 2 OAK TREES OK'd

The VFW Post was authorized to remove two oak trees in center field of the city baseball diamond Tuesday night.

Larry Shepherd, manager of VFW Raiders, had requested the removal to prevent possible injury to players and to lengthen the field.

He assured councilmen that the 350-foot length of the field now possible is as was originally proposed for the boundaries.

Baseball School Begins Saturday

'HORSEHIDE SCHOLARS' TO REPORT AT 3 P. M.

Sierra Madre's baseball school will get underway this Saturday, April 14.

Prospective "horsehide scholars" are asked to report at the city ball field promptly at 3 p. m.

The school, which will train youngsters, youths, and adults in specialized baseball skills, will be under the leadership of professional and semipro athletes. In addition, Major League scouts have promised to help out if enough interest is shown.

Anyone over 10 years of age may enroll Saturday. Age groups will be decided when teams or classes are formed. The school also is open to older persons, including parents, since instruction will range from primary baseball to so-called "inside baseball." Several VFW Raider team players have said they will enroll for the advanced training.

Head coach of the school will be Ralph "Val" Valencia, former Red Sox big leaguer and veteran player of the Pacific Coast League. He will be assisted by Larry Shepherd, manager of the Raiders, and Willard Evans, first baseman of the local semipro nine.

The first session of the school Saturday will be largely for enrollment and primary discussion. All minor students will be required to have enrollment slips signed by their parents before active instruction begins. These slips will be passed out Saturday, according to Coach Valencia.

All students should bring a Turn to page four—

DR. LASELLE TO ANALYZE EMOTIONAL DISTURBANCES

Dr. Sidney L. Laselle will lead a discussion on "Emotional Disturbances in Young Children," when the Community Nursery School Association meets Tuesday, April 17, 8 p. m. at the nursery school building, 701 E. Sierra Madre boulevard.

All interested parents are invited to hear the discussion according to Mrs. Ruth Dowty, publicity chairman.

Dr. Laselle, a practicing pediatrician and now a research fellow at Children's Hospital in Los Angeles, has had special training in psychiatry, having spent a year in this field at Cornell University.

In his informal lecture and during the question-and-answer period following it, Dr. Laselle is expected to show relationships between physical illness and emotional disturbances as excessive irritability, destructiveness, and the desire to hurt other children.

"Dr. Laselle's talk will help parents of older children as well," she said.

A social hour and refreshments will follow the program.

Pepper Trees Must Go, State Tells City Council

Two of the three pepper trees in the PE Depot island will have to go, the State Division of Highways told the city this week.

The city's plans for the reconstruction of Baldwin, Kersting Court, and Sierra Madre boulevard were being held "in abeyance" pending the city's consent to remove the trees.

"We cannot approve the plans unless these trees are taken out of the roadway," A. D. Griffin, assistant district engineer for the Division of Highways, wrote the Council. "Gas tax funds can only be expended on improvements which benefit vehicular traffic."

The city should not attempt to save these trees, he stated. "By so doing, the city is defeating its purpose of widening the street. These trees also are a definite hazard."

Mr. Griffin was also referring to the tree on the north side of Kersting Court (in Hopper's Park).

Councilman Henry Korsmeier asked City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn if that meant the city would not get the state's $35,000 if the trees were left in. Mr. Cornyn replied that was true.

"We'd like to see the trees saved, but at the same time we can't jeopardize the $35,000 for the project," Mr. Korsmeier said.

He suggested that the city plant trees in the side walks around the depot, replacing the trees where the state will not object.

Mayor William A. Kinney pointed out that a representative of the state advised him if Kersting Court could be made completely one-way (it now is one-way except for the

Streets Listed For Repair

Three more streets were earmarked for attention this week as the City Council continued its street repair program.

Councilman Henry Korsmeier proposed a "priority list" of the three streets, with Baldwin (from Highland to Grandview) at the top.

The other two projects are Lima (from Sierra Madre boulevard to Grandview) and Lima (from Sierra Madre boulevard to Orange Grove).

Director of Public Works Glen B. Watson was instructed to proceed with getting plans and specifications for the jobs.

COUNCIL STUDIES TUNNEL OWNERSHIP

Land Ownership and water rights of a water tunnel near 700 N. Lima were ordered clarified by the City Council this week.

Paul N. Carter had asked the city to board up the entrance to the 200-foot tunnel to prevent possible liability if someone were injured in it or entered and polluted the water. Councilman Herman Barter expressed the opinion that the city and Mrs. Julia F. Henszey jointly own the tunnel. Director of Public Works G. B. Watson and City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn will determine property ownership and water rights of the tunnel and land.

Mr. Carter pointed out that a fire recently destroyed the timber barricade and the tunnel now stands open.

He told the NEWS yesterday that the property is "500 feet within the city land," but that the water rights have always belonged to Mrs. Henszey. Her "prescriptive-use" rights to the water date back nearly 70 years, Mr. Carter said.

Yarn Available For 'Toe Socks'

Sierra Madre knitters this week were alerted for a new project to aid wounded American servicemen.

The local Red Cross Chapter announces that it has white yarn and directions available for residents willing to knit "toe socks" for hospitalized soldiers, sailors, and marines.

"Toe socks," explains Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary of ARC, cover the exposed toes of men who have their injured legs in casts.

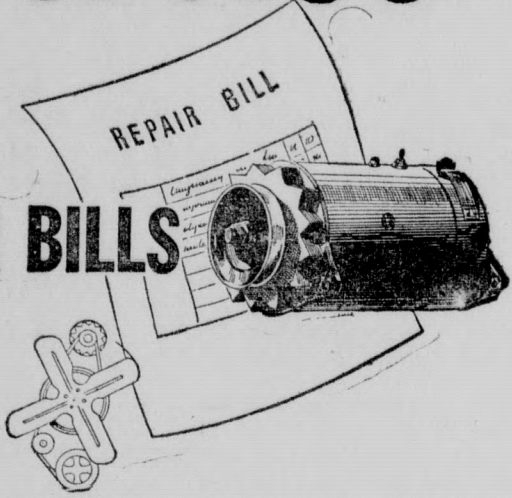

The yarn and mimeographed instructions can be picked up at the Chapter House, 41 S. Baldwin, Monday through Friday, 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

BILL JENKINS WRITES BOOK, 'OKINAWA: ISLE OF SMILES'

BY EDWARD LLOYD VOORHEES

Local friends and relations of William E. Jenkins have within the week received autographed copies of his new book "Okinawa: Isle of Smiles," which his publishers, Book Associates, New York, (1951), announce as "an informal photographic study of the important Pacific island," with "more than 275 photographs with descriptive text." Each of its 160 pages contains either two photographs or text or one photo and text. It's a neat, clear text and photos, well bound in linen board.

Without exaggeration the jacket states: "No other full-scale portrait of Okinawa has ever been made available, and this book, with its unusual pictures and lively, informative commentary, fills a real need in introducing Americans to the island that is playing so vital a role in our Pacific policy. Servicemen especially will find 'Okinawa: Isle of Smiles' an invaluable record of this fascinating island, and an excellent souvenir for friends and relatives in the United States."

Jenkins, whose home is at 105 S. Lima, where his mother, Mrs. Aimee Jenkins, resides, has for the past three years been a surveyor with an engineering construction unit on Okinawa. With a forty-minute documentary color-motion film on the Okinawa rice industry already to his credit, this book is a further indication of its author's progressively intelligent and sympathetic interest in the highly individual civilization of this tiny and so important Pacific island. Every photo and comment in the book are evidence of the extent to which its author and photographer has won the respect, friendship, and trust of its people. Its photos of children have the special appeal of their subject, but those of street scenes, fishermen, farmers, the artists' group, and the unique tombs of Okinawa combine to make the book a pleasant form of education. Quoting the Chinese proverb, "One picture is worth a thousand words," Jenkins writes in the Introduction: "I have fallen back upon that old proverb in the preparation of this book... I dare say that every camera fan on the island has pictures that should be in a book like this. But this is my story, and since I chose to tell it with pictures, I felt I should use my own." This typically modest declaration should lead no one to neglect reading the text which comments upon the photos, nor, especially, the 6-page article by Jenkins describing the nature of the island and its people—and why he calls it "Isle of Smiles."

Lodge Plans Annual Public Schools Week

Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. and A. M., is looking ahead to its annual observance of Public Schools Week, scheduled this year for April 23 to 30.

John C. Mead, master of the lodge, said a special program is planned for Friday, April 27, at the City School auditorium. Local Masons, as in years past, has offered cash prizes for pupils making the best posters advertising the program.

The Trestleboard, periodical of the lodge, this month emphasized the importance of Public School Week by stating:

"Never was the need greater than now for such a program as that sponsored in California Masonry. In very recent years attacks on the public schools have been increasing in number and virulence. Sinister efforts have been made to combine the forces of every dissatisfied element. Some of these elements were basically opposed to each other. Their joining of forces simply made more difficult really constructive effort to advance the quality of public education."

Sierra Madrean Returns From New Zealand Trip

Miss Barbara Scheuner is leaving New Zealand this week via air, returning to her home in Sierra Madre.

Miss Scheuner has spent a year in Wellington, N. Z., as guest of her sister and family, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Suckling. She made the return trip with the Sucklings last year after they had spent a vacation with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Scheuner of 286 W. Highland.

Faulty Brakes Do Damage

Faulty brakes were listed as the cause of an accident last week when a car ran wild and damaged a fence.

Dorothea L. McGlaufflin, 400 Foothill, said she parked her car for a moment, then returned in time to see it rolling down hill. It smashed the fence at 351 Foothill.

In court Saturday, City Judge John C. Mead fined her $2 for the faulty brakes. Mrs. McGlaufflin, said she had the damaged fence and her car brakes repaired.

Mrs. Peter P. Thill, chairman, said the groups are purchasing a sewing machine for the hall. Previously, sewing had been done at members' homes.

This is the question Dr. George Ladd will ask worshippers at Bethany Church Sunday morning, April 15.

The popular speaker is professor of the New Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena. Dr. Ladd has been guest preacher at Bethany Church several times recently.

The 7:30 p. m. service at the cobbler-stone church will be under the direction of the Rev. Dewey Mulholland, interim pastor. His message will be entitled "This Is Our Confidence."

Boy Scouts 'Clean Up' Orchard Camp

Eight Sierra Madre Boy Scouts and Bud Moffett, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 1, "cleaned up" Orchard Camp on Saturday as a public service project.

The boys, seven from Troop 1 and one from Troop 3, cleared rocks from the pathway, raked leaves, and generally "house-cleaned" the campsite four miles up Mount Wilson Trail above Sierra Madre.

Two other local Scouts had planned to take part in the project, but were forced to return home when they accidentally "dunked" themselves in a frigid mountain stream.

Girl Scout Garden Tours This Weekend

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts are expecting large crowds again for their second of three Garden Tours this weekend, April 13 and 14.

Scheduled this Friday and Saturday are tours of six gardens in the Pasadena-San Marino area. Gardens will be open from 12:30 to 5:30 p. m. Girl Scout membership cards admit the public to the gardens, and those who do not already have their cards can get them at the gates of the gardens.

Gardens on this week's tour are the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Edwin Davis, 1435 Circle Dr., San Marino; Miss Abigail von Schlegel, 1138 Arden Road; Mr. and Mrs. H. Leslie Hoffman, 1100 Avondale Road, San Marino; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Bell, 1570 Lombardy Road, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClelland, 2200 Orlando Road, San Marino; and Mrs. Clyde Street, 2825 Canterbury Road, San Marino.

The 18th annual Girl Scout-benefit Garden Tours started last weekend with six gardens in the South Pasadena-San Rafael area.

Brother Pat Begins Duties In Sacramento

Brother Pat, C. P., who served the Mater Dolorosa Retreat House and St. Rita's Parish for nine years, has begun his new duties at the retreat house in Sacramento.

According to Mrs. Mary LaSala, 648 Manzanita, the parish was saddened by Brother Pat's leaving Sierra Madre.

"He was devoted to the small fry, and they shall miss him most," said Mrs. LaSala. Brother Pat always was Santa Claus at their Christmas parties.

"The big fry also will miss him. He always was a friend in need, ever ready to lend a helping hand," she said.

St. Rita's Drive To Aid Orphanage

St. Rita's Church strategists are mapping final plans for the drive to financially aid the Los Angeles children's orphanage.

The Sierra Madre campaign will be held in May, according to Mrs. Celeste Burns, chairman.

USNR Unit Has Billets For Officers

A limited number of officers' billets are open in the Military Sea Transportation Service unit at the Naval Reserve Armory, 2727 Paloma street, Pasadena.

Cmdr. Paul N. Carter, USNR, of Sierra Madre, commanding officer of the unit, said billets are open for ensigns, lieutenants junior grade, and lieutenants.

"Purpose of the MSTs is to train officers for port director activities at advanced Navy shore base operations," explained Commander Carter.

The unit meets in the officers' wardroom of the armory on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month, at 7:30 p. m.

Commander Carter may be reached at Van Dyke 2421 during the day, or Custer 5-5069 evenings.

He recently resumed command of the Naval Reserve outfit after an absence of six months while he was on temporary duty with the Matson Navigation Lines in San Francisco.

Supervisors Sell City School Bonds

Sierra Madre City School District bonds amounting to $7000 were sold to Bank of America last week by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

The bond issue was bought on a bid of 3 1/4 per cent and a premium of $55 with a net interest of 3.07 per cent.

School Superintendent Charles A. Skutt said the interest rate last week was "slightly higher" than the rate under which the $79,000 bonds were sold last year. The $7000 and the $79,000 made up the total school bond issue of $86,000 approved for new classrooms by the voters last May.

Local Men Weekend at Retreat House

Next weekend, April 13, 14, and 15, will be Sierra Madre and Monrovia days at Mater Dolorosa Retreat House, 500 N. Lima.

Approximately 75 men from St. Rita's Parish and the parish in Monrovia will take part in the weekend of meditation and devotions, according to Fr. Isidore O'Reilly, CP, retreat director.

In charge of the Sierra Madre contingent will be Bill Burns. Leigh O'Brien is chairman of the Monrovia men.

Fr. Isidore reports there has been a capacity attendance at the retreat house every weekend. Eighty men from four downtown Los Angeles parishes came here last week.

The men came from St. Raphael, Holy Cross, St. Cecilia, and Resurrection parishes.

FIRE FLAMES

What would the fire department do if the water system were destroyed, there were no electricity and there were several houses burning in a block? You tell us!

We have three small tanks of water on the trucks that might last as long as it takes to say "Jack Robinson." We have sufficient men to fight an ordinary fire if we have water.

We think of these things all the time. Even during times of normalcy, what would we do if a row of houses were burning in a wind such as we experienced when the dairy burned down? Such a wind would fan those burning houses into an inferno and the streams of water would look like so much sawdust. We'd better not allow such a condition to happen.

A way to prevent it is to keep thinking that it can happen and then we will be careful to keep our premises clear of inflammables. All that material about the yard such as loose wood, dry trimmings, paper and ever so much junk only add to the flame and heat, making the fire hotter and hotter and more difficult to put out.

A fire may start elsewhere and reach your yard and from that accumulation create sufficient heat to reach the house, your household goods and treasures.

While we have water that garden hose at hand when a fire is in the early stages can do a tremendous amount of good. A good hose is a very fine first aid fire tool. Of course, you must be careful with the water, the same as you expect of the firemen. Don't aim the stream at a wall where there is no fire.

There still is danger of a sudden bombing which could start many fires in our area. We just gotta get to thinkin' about it and what we oughta do. At a time when there are more fires than the local fire department can handle, residents will be expected to do much for themselves. We may even have difficulty in getting help from our mutual aid friends of the neighboring cities because they may have their hands full also.

Let's hope that this talk is only a "scare-bug" and that there may not be another war—and yet, on the other hand, let's scare ourselves to the extent that we do some preparing for such an emergency. We who are old enough will remember the sudden shock of the words that Pearl Harbor had been attacked.

During these busy times when those who have businesses or important jobs have much to do, we must still give time toward the preparation for war emergency. It's tough to give up our evenings, our precious time and all that. Yes, it's pretty tough. Let's hope and hope that it will not get more tough.

The members of the several organizations who willingly devote their time to defense matters are not to be depended on for everything. It is the duty of all citizens to do a little of the work themselves.

Every member of the fire department is a busy man. He is obligated to apply much of his own time toward the work of fire fighting. He must keep acquainted with the methods and workings of equipment. He must continue to attend drills.

More drills have been added

Pre-Nuptial Events At Colligan Home

Guests are already arriving at the home of Mrs. Rebecca Colligan in anticipation of the wedding of her daughter, Dolores, whose marriage to Merle Eugene Swanson of Santa Monica will be solemnized on April 20, at the Shrine of St. Rita. Chamber Looks Ahead

To some of us the parking situation in Sierra Madre may not seem bad or even serious.

But if we will think ahead and plan for the city as it will be five or ten years from now, we will realize that there is a great need for parking improvement—a problem that must be faced now, not five years from now.

Streets in our way of living, and in cities to come are meant as thoroughfares, not parking areas. Therefore — off-street parking is the answer to the problem now and to come.

Off-street parking areas which are privately owned are of necessity limited—they are a big expense, they cannot be publicly policed. City owned lots can be policed, they can provide revenue for maintenance and additions.

The Chamber of Commerce Parking Committee has gotten down to taking the problems by the teeth and though there's a lot of hard work ahead they're ready and working for a better Sierra Madre.

City Reservoirs Drained, Scrubbed

Three of Sierra Madre's four reservoirs were drained, scrubbed, and repaired this week by men of the city water department.

And the reservoir at the pumping plant is due for a "clean up" as soon as water levels in the other three are restored—probably today or tomorrow.

The repair and scrubbing—for the Grove street reservoir it was the first time in 18 years—brought many inquiries by citizens, some of whom thought the receptacles had broken and the water supply was endangered.

Al Freeland, assistant water superintendent, warns residents not to park their cars in the Youth Hut grounds today or Friday during the emptying of the reservoir.

Toastmasters Club to Form Here Tonight

First meeting of the proposed Toastmasters Club in Sierra Madre will be held this evening, April 12, 7:30 p. m. at the Parkhouse.

Attending the charter meeting of the local club will be several national and Southland leaders of the organization.

Prospective members will see a "typical sample meeting" as presented by members of the South Pasadena Toastmasters Club. During the evening a regular meeting place and time will be decided upon, according to Arthur Rittterath, acting secretary.

"A dinner meeting has been suggested for the next meeting," Mr. Rittterath said.

Officials expected at the meeting tonight include George W. S. Reed, International president of Toastmasters Clubs; Glen E. Welch, district governor; and Wayland Dunham, area governor.

Acting chairman of the proposed Sierra Madre club is Walt Goodwin, a past president of the Norwalk club who recently moved to Sierra Madre.

FRIDAY EVENING SERVICES

A guest speaker will discuss Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra next Friday evening April 13th at the Foothill Jewish Community Center.

bus), Then the Hopper Park tree could be retained in the parkway where it now stands. The Council ordered a letter sent promptly to the state agency, stating that the city will comply but requesting that the Kersting Court tree be retained if possible.

During the discussion, Councilman Noren Eaton asked City Engineer L. Frederick Pack if removing the tree would correct the bad lighting situation in Kersting Court.

"It wouldn't solve the problem completely, but it would help," Mr. Pack said. "The tree does cut out a lot of light on the northwest side of Kersting Court."

Councilman Herman Barter pointed out that the district needs another street light, and Mr. Pack agreed.

"Another light probably is required to give complete lighting," he said.

The VFW Post will provide all other equipment, and even a few extra gloves may be available for those not having them. Comfort is when you don't feel anything!

Most folks think of comfort as a state of repose—a kind of wonderful process that supports you everywhere but touches you nowhere. Actually, it's the little things you don't feel that make you comfortable.

Chair Cars on Southern Pacific's modern streamliners have been built with this thought—your comfort—the first consideration. Dust-free, draft-free air-conditioning. No glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around room. Extra large windows. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms.

That's why Chair Cars on Southern Pacific streamliners are the most luxurious form of all low-cost transportation.

The NEWS staff seems to be about the only folks in town who did not know of the marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Stoddart.

Miss Stoddart, daughter of the William Stoddarts of Montecito, went to Anchorage, Alaska, last April to take a position on the city newspaper. Her marriage to Lt. Robert Koenig of the US Air Force, stationed at Anchorage, was solemnized last October.

Miss Stoddart went into the newspaper field after graduating from high school two years ago, her first position was with the Royal Oak News at Royal Oak, Mich., and she went directly from Michigan to Alaska.

BOOKS OF CONTRASTING THEME AT CITY LIBRARY

BY ISABEL STRADLEY

"Round the Bend," by Nevill Shute.

Mr. Shute, whose real name is N. S. Norway, is one of the really skillful writers of our time. He can range from technical flying problems (he's an aeronautical engineer) to philosophical mysticism.

This novel, "Round the Bend" is an absorbing one, told with compelling power. It is timely—the tale of man's search for a personal relationship with God—the story of the discovery of God in man's own work, in the hangar and beside the oil pumps. It is told by a straight-thinking, uncultivated English mechanic, young Tom Cutter, who makes a great success of air-freight service in the Persian Gulf area.

His chief engineer and best friend is the half-Chinese Connie Shakin who achieves wonderful efficiency by teaching mechanics that a man really worships God by doing the best work it is within him to do. The effect is profound, for the idea spreads and makes for a refreshing, heart-warming story.

"Old Friends and New Music," by Nicholas Nabokov.

This musical autobiography is an unusual book of personal reminiscences, written with perception and a delightful sense of humor. Beginning with the author's boyhood in pre-revolutionary Russia, it goes on to tell of his associates in music, and in the ballet in the world of Europe and America since the 1910's.

The most interesting part of the book are the chapters devoted to four outstanding Russians of this country, Diaghilev, Koussevitsky, Stravinsky, and Prokofiev. Mr. Nabokov writes also intimately of Nijinsky and Balanchine.

Indeed there are few people who have known so well the personalities who crowd his pages. The author is now an American citizen. New compositions of his have been played by the Boston Symphony and the Philharmonic in New York.

Other new books at the library are: Non-fiction:

Fabled Shores, Macaulay; Tito and Goliath, Armstrong; Moscow-on-the-Hudson, Argus; Common Ventures in Life, Trueblood; Church and Contemporary Change, Oxnham; California Place Names, Gude; Farside of Paradise, Mizner; Modern Composers, Ewen; His Majesty O'Keefe, Klingman; Better Color Movies, Bond; Sea-going Gaucha, Uruburo; TV Installation Technique, Marshall; Table Service, Allen; Politics of Murder, Bornstein.

Fiction:

Breath of Air, Godden; Rock Wagram, Saroyan; From Here to Eternity, Jones; Farewell to Otterley, P. Kingdon; Danger from Deer, Baum; Sheep Rock, Stewart; World Is So Wide, Lewis; No Odds No Victory, Carney; Whole Armor, Baldwin.

CLASSY PASADENA INDIANS SCALP RAIDERS, 13 TO 6

Sierra Madre's VFW Raiders were scalped by a classy tribe of Pasadena Indians Sunday afternoon by a 13 to 6 score. The Raiders have played five triple "A" teams in succession, winning two and losing three.

Fans and Raiders agreed that the Indians probably were the best players yet to compete at city ball park.

"We have been beaten once or twice by a larger score, but I am pretty sure we have not been defeated by a better team," Larry Shepherd, VFW manager. "This was the first time the Raiders have been outclassed."

The Indians belted two Sierra Madre pitchers—Harold Stueve and "Mutt" Oaks—for 21 hits, 10 of them doubles. Second-baseman Mitchell of the visitors blasted a home run.

The Raiders combined eight hits to score their six runs. Although outthit and outplayed, the Raiders staged the fielding "gems" of the afternoon with two fast double plays, accurate pegs, and some nice catches. The double-play combinations were Jason-to-Kiggins-to-Evans and Jason-to-Evans-to-Schaefer.

Sunday's game probably marked the last appearance here for a few weeks of strictly triple "A" teams. Sierra Madre's record against triple "A" teams has been eight wins and five losses for the first year of play.

Next Sunday, the Azusa Merchants return to the local diamond. In two previous games here, the Raiders and Merchants each have won a game.

Coach Finds Tennis Utopia; He Can't Lose

Dyke Berry, 400 Churchill Road, Sierra Madre's top-flight tennis coach, never before had it so good.

He recently had the unique experience of having his proteges comprise the entire list of finalists in the girls' division of Arcadia's annual Peachblossom Tennis Tournament, conducted by the county at Santa Anita Park.

In the girls' singles division, for girls 18 years old and under, Beatrice Bailey and Nolie Suman played their way in to the finals, Miss Bailey winning the finals by defeating Miss Suman.

In the junior girls' singles competition (15 years of age and younger), Louise Lefler and Susan Suman met in the finals after winning preliminary matches. Miss Lefler topped Miss Suman to win the trophy in the final match.

As if that were not enough Beatrice Bailey and Nolie Suman later teamed in doubles to win the girls' doubles championship by defeating Martha Funderberg and Ann Evans of San Marino.

During the tournament, finals, Mr. Berry was heard to remark:

"What a spot! If I lose I win; If I win I lose. I never had it so good."
